

During the 2007 Election and beyond, Roddy quietly ensured that threatening trees did not harm the vital electrical transformers along Tribe Rd #6 during ferocious winds in many a hurricane. Warwick West kept its lights on during those rough times!!

In the meantime:

- Roddy has been present, willing and able to nurture many community matters to their conclusions.
- Roddy listens to and acts upon the concerns of his Warwick neighbours loud and clear!!
- Roddy always endeavours to foster and heal community strife.
- Roddy works to keep the lights on in Warwick, the streets clean and safe, the businesses bustling and hiring, the school

"He believes it is time for an Independent Candidate's voice to float above the usual hum and haw of the established candidates, mired in only their old ways. It is time to let new voices bring new ideas, for new times to the integrity, charm and beauty of Warwick." Roddy would truly be:

- Representative of the People
- Selected by the People
- Working for the People

A Little Info About Your Candidate

Roderick “Roddy” D. E. Simons is part of the fabric of Warwick, the son of Joan and Roderick Sr. He grew up on Simons Drive, a stone throw away from St. Mary’s Church. He still lives there today, soothed by the lusty ringing of the bells of St. Mary’s, bidding him to get out and start the day in the service of Warwick and Bermuda.

Roderick has two grown daughters and a sister.

Roddy attended the Purvis Primary School. He went on to the Berkeley Institute, York University and Shaw Business College, majoring in Business Administration and Accounting. He has also earned many accreditations . He is most proud of the designation from the American Bankers Association, which bolstered his skills and knowledge in financial services.

His family harkens back to his grand father, H. Earlington “Early”, who supplied food and sustenance to the good people of Warwick through the family-oriented Simons’ Superette on Khyber Pass (now still an essential landmark through the Amis Funeral Parlor establishment). “Early”, the jolly gentleman of Warwick.

and the Simons ‘byes’, excelled in their enterprising services and civic duty to the good people of Warwick West.

Roddy is a ‘chip off the old block’ in that Early, Roddy Sr. and Roddy Jr. are tireless workers for Warwick. They are involved in the family tradition of services to Warwick such as road improvements, community safety, and better street lighting. Roddy Jr., like his father, aunts and uncles, is spurred on to render services to Warwick Parish.

Roddy has always been deeply involved in Warwick’s affairs from his work with:

- Keep Bermuda Beautiful
- St. Mary’s Church Vestry
- Bermuda Boy’s Brigade Troop Leader
- Government Committees and Boards

Roddy is adding one more chapter to the Simons family tradition of community service by standing as an Independent Candidate for Warwick North Central , Constituency #27.

“I am stepping forward because I want to continue helping my neighbours and my country like my grandfather, father, and other relatives before me.”

In terms of National Issues, Roddy wants to:

- work on boosting employment levels by rejuvenating the economy to encourage development and growth.
- offer creative strategies for the Tourism Experience in Bermuda.
- improve the Hospital Insurance Plan and Pension Entitlements for our growing number of Seniors.
- overall, enhance the quality of life within the neighbourhoods of Warwick, and on a national level.

Roderick’s Political Experiences

Roddy ran for Parliament in the 2007 General Election. Roddy’s consistent hard work and genuine appeal drew him far more supporters to the extent he was a mere 200 votes behind the former Premier and a seat in Parliament.
