

Gosling's

SPECIFIC DATE RANGES

Please ensure every pallet is inspected by checking the date ranges and date on one package on each full pallet.

Does your package have one of the best before dates written below?

If so, does it have the corresponding Package Code?

If so, does it have the corresponding Time Stamp?

Country code	Country	Best Before Date	Package Code	Time Stamp
BM	Bermuda	20/2/18	49	0:00-6:00
BM	Bermuda	6/6/18	49	8:00-20:00

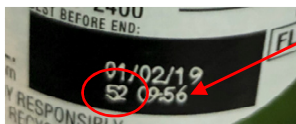

INSTRUCTIONS

How to read the bottle label

The label has two lines.

The first line is the Best Before Date, it is read day/month/year
01/02/2019 = February 1 2019

The second line is a package code and a time code
The package code will contain the numbers 49, 52 or 55
The next four digits are a time code, it is read hour:min

Privileged and Confidential.-

Do you only have the carton? How to read the carton code:

If you have a 12-pack, 18-pack or 24-pack, this is what you look for on the side of the carton:
The carton code has two lines:

The first line is a Best Before Date, it is read day/month/year
01/02/2019 = February 1 2019

The second line is the package code
The package code will contain the numbers 49, 52 or 55
The next four digits are a time code, it is read hour:min

